Engility Donates $36,600 to Building Homes for Heroes

Funds will be used to support refurbishment of a home to be gifted to Iraq War veteran

CHANTILLY, Va., May 18, 2016 – Engility Holdings, Inc. (NYSE:EGL), a leading provider of integrated solutions and services for the U.S. government in defense, intelligence, space, federal civilian and international communities, today donated $36,600 to Building Homes for Heroes, an organization that gifts mortgage-free homes to injured veterans. Engility’s donation will support the refurbishment and modification of a home for Gunnery Sergeant Christopher Claude, a U.S. Marine Corps veteran wounded in Iraq, and his family.

“As a nation, we are indebted to the men and women in this country who serve in the military, and civilian agencies protecting America’s freedom,” said Lynn Dugle, Chief Executive Officer of Engility. “Helping and supporting those who have bravely served our country is important to Engility, and our work with Building Homes for Heroes embodies this commitment. We are honored to support Gunnery Sgt. Claude and we thank him for his sacrifice.”

Gunnery Sgt. Claude enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1998 after graduating high school, and was injured in Iraq in 2006. He was assigned outside of Karbala as a military advisor to the Iraqi police as part of a Military Transition Team. His team was ambushed by an Iraqi insurgent’s improvised explosive device, causing him to lose his right leg and suffer from a traumatic brain injury. Gunnery Sgt. Claude, his wife, Shirley, and their three children will reside in a refurbished home in Pennsylvania, which will be constructed to accommodate his medical needs.

Engility raised donations for the Building Homes for Heroes initiative by hosting events at its offices across the country, including in Arizona, California, Massachusetts and Virginia, and providing a corporate match for funds donated by employees. Engility began raising funds for the charity in 2012, and over the past four years has contributed more than $75,000 to homes for veterans.
